

SOCA SWEET IN SWEDEN

By GARY CARDINEZ

MAS revellers in far-off Sweden have gone crazy over soca.

At its recent annual Carnival parade, top Swedish soca band, Soca Rebels, had thousands of bikini-clad women jumping on the streets in wild abandon.

Mas in Sweden has clearly taken a page out of our book and is on the way to achieving real Carnival glory.

Soca Rebels is the first and only soca band in Sweden.

Earlier this year, they launched a record with three songs "Soca Nation", "Dis Is Trouble" and Party Hardy".

The group was first heard in 1991 when they made a Swedish version of Crazy's "Nani Wine".

This was followed up with a tour of Sweden by Crazy in 1992.

Soca Rebels is led by two brothers, Lars and Mats Hansson.

Both men came to Trinidad, recently, "taking in" our music.

The band will be in TnT next year for the Carnival.

Welcome aboard.
