CARIPOP

By ANTHONY 'Lexo' ALEXIS

SHE'S just 19 years old, and ready to take Caribbean music to another level.

Swedish beauty Sarah Hansson, from Gothenburg, calls her music Caripop.

"It's really a blend of pop harmonics laced with Caribbean rhythms," she explained.

Sarah is half-Trinidadian and half-Swedish; her mother is from Trinidad and her father is from Sweden.

The young beauty has released a single Never Knew from her forthcoming album.

"I'm excited about the song and will like to bring this music to Trinidad, which really is my second home," she gushed.

Sarah has been singing from an early age and is now in her last year studying music.

Never Knew was composed by Sarah, arranged by Sarah, Lars and Bjorn Hansson.

The track was recorded in Soca Rebels Studio, Gothenburg, Sweden.
