New frontline for Imij & Co

...and Karma too

By JOAN RAMPERSAD

HILTON DALZELL (Ghetto Flex) has again left IMIJ & Co, this time for Karma. The frontline of Imij now comprises Kevon Carter, Malaika Ballantyne, daughter of prolific composer Gregory Ballantyne (GB), and Sweden-born Sarah Hansoon, of Trinidadian and Swedish parents.

Carter's 2014 releases "Main Road" and "Pressure" are receiving airplay on major radio stations.

Ballantyne said, "Following in my dad's footsteps, I decided to pursue a career in the arts and culture, singing as a guest performer. My first big stage act was the National Junior Monarch finals."

Years later, Ballantyne placed first in the 2012 Miss La Reine Rive competition representing Embacadere Travellers, and in 2013, placed fourth in the National Queen competition.
